

LISTENING AND SPOKEN LANGUAGE PROVIDER

Ohio Valley Voices, a listening and spoken language program, is accepting applications for Listening and Spoken Language Providers for the 2022-2023 school year. Come join our dedicated, energetic and collaborative team as we help children, who are deaf or hard of hearing, communicate and learn through listening and spoken language. Enjoy a small caseload in a school setting.

Ohio Valley Voices is a listening and spoken language program that serves deaf and hearing-impaired infants, children and families located in a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio. A relocation stipend is offered! For more information on our mission and programs, please visit www.ohiovalleyvoices.org.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Create individualized lessons to facilitate the development of listening, language, speech, and social skills.
- Gather student data for ongoing progress monitoring.
- Complete assessments and evaluations as appropriate for individual children and families.
- Participate in, contribute to and update IEPs as needed.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Deaf Education required.
- Master's Degree in Deaf Education preferred.
- Masters Degree in Speech-Language Pathology - CFY accepted
- Currently hold or eligibility to obtain Ohio Department of Education Hearing Impaired Specialist or Speech Language Pathology License.
- Strong commitment to listening and spoken language methodology.
- Strong planning and organizational skills.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Ability to work effectively as a member of a collaborative team.

Qualified candidates should submit a resume via e-mail to Carey Ratliff, Program Director: cratliff@ohiovalleyvoices.org.